

Cultivation of A Working-Class Consciousness

Potential program and or research project stimulating civic intelligence in a community

Research Project or Program Patterns:
Working Class Consciousness, Homemade Media, Retreat and Reflection

Group Participants: Arnold, Eric, Mattea, Nina

http://wikis.evergreen.edu/civicingelligence/index.php/Research_Project_or_Program

Working Class Consciousness

Consider what working class consciousness is and how it affects you and how you live

Class consciousness: "The awareness of individuals in a particular social class that they share common interests and a common social situation. Class consciousness is associated with the development of a 'class-for-itself' where individuals within the class unite to pursue their shared interests." Online Dictionary of Social Sciences

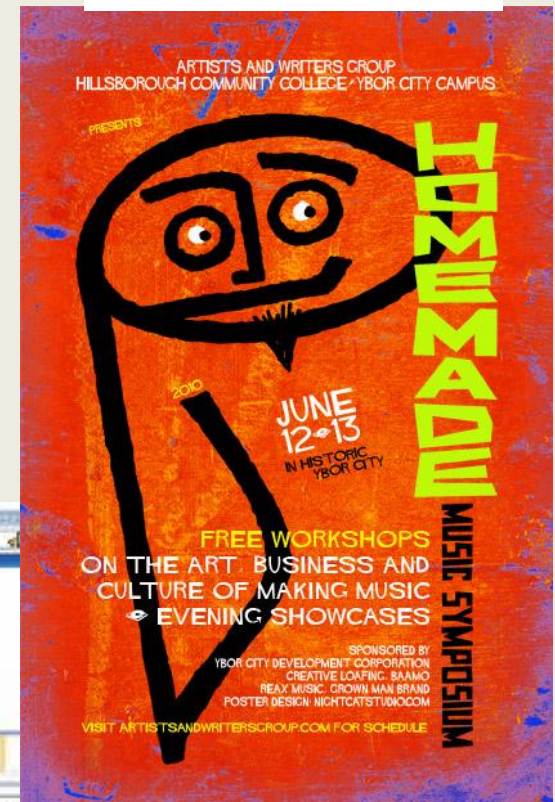

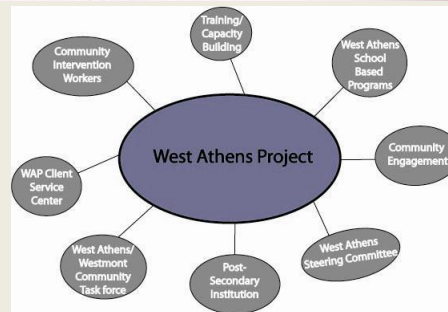

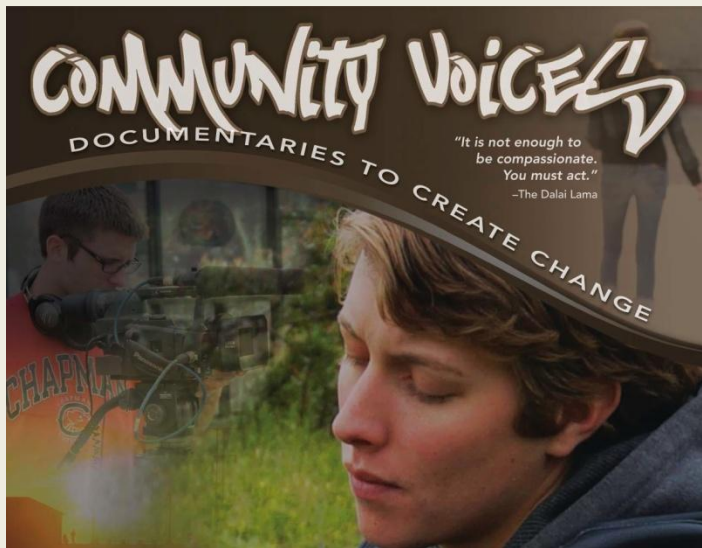

Homemade Media

Support SELC!

Cottage Food Law for CA!

Mission

To facilitate education and communication amongst the working population to create an active force for equitable change in the global economy. - Cultivation of A Working-Class Consciousness

WORKING CLASS SOLIDARITY.

Right wing nut jobs really hate it

Promoting Civic Intelligence

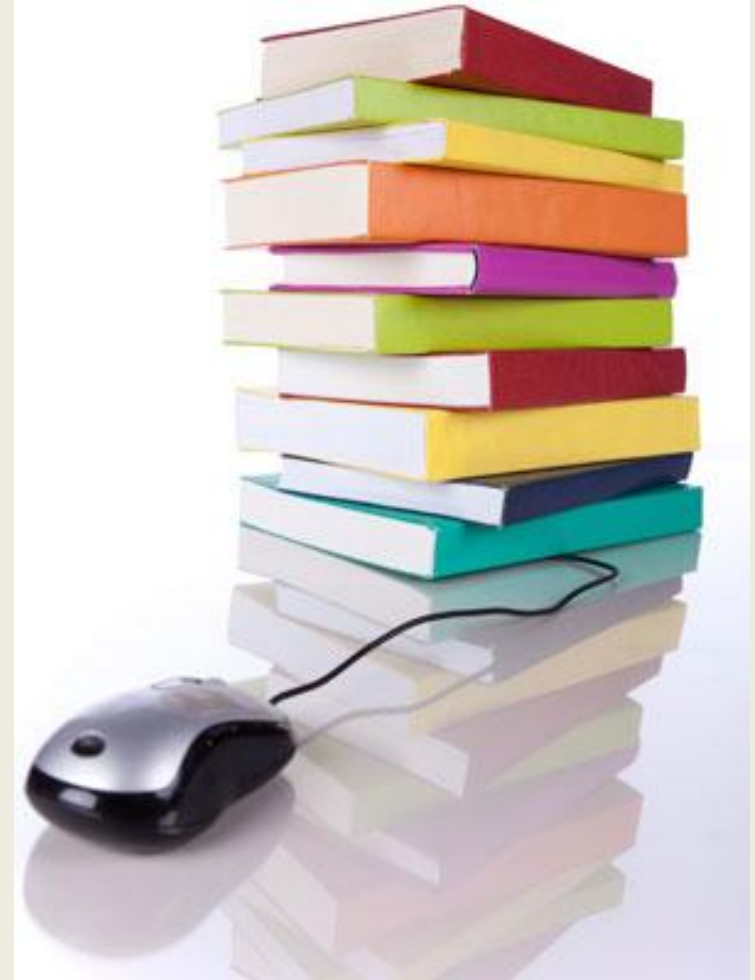

Jane Jacobs
Greenwich Village, NY 1960

- Integrating thought and action in a sustainable and realistic manner.
- Addressing change and how to adapt as a necessity.
- Promoting long-term goals and objectives for local, regional, national, and global participation.

Resources

Resources for information regarding: education, employment, transportation, networking, communication skills, community building, political involvement, business creation, finance support, government navigation, self building, and family care.

Projected Timeline

