The Grays Harbor College Reservation Based AA Degree Bridge program serves students with less than 90 college credits who live or work on a reservation or have social or cultural ties to tribal communities.

- Students attend online classes designed for a high degree of cultural relevance.
- Students meet once a week at Lower Elwha , Muckleshoot, Nisqually/Squaxin Island, Quinault, and Shoalwater Bay/Aberdeen for tutoring and support. At some additional smaller sites, individualized rather than weekly group meetings occur.
- Students also attend class four Saturdays per quarter at the Longhouse on the Evergreen campus, with the Evergreen students.
- Students work toward a direct transfer Associate of Arts Degree.
